

Remembering the Life of Mr. Marvin Lee Norman

A smile for all, a heart of gold, one of the finest this world could hold Never selfish, always kind, these are the memories he leaves behind...

Mr. Marvin Lee Norman, 80, was born in Iredell County on December 23, 1940 and was the son of the late Sinclair Norman and Margaret Miller Norman. He passed away on Monday, March 29, 2021, at his residence.

He graduated from Unity High School and North Carolina College. He was employed for several years by the Engineered Sintered Components for cars prior to his retirement. He served with the United States Air Force and was honorably discharged. He was a hardworking man and was a good man to all.

To cherish the memory of his life, two children, Steven Norman of Statesville, NC, and Todd (Sherry) Norman of Carrboro; his siblings, John (Jean) Norman of Troutman, Fred (Petrolia) Norman of Cornelius, Charles (Amanda) Norman of Statesville, Margaret Ann Norman of Queens, NY, Virginia (Kenny) Sharpe of Charlotte, Ruby (Ron Sr.) Reid of Statesville, Patricia (Louis) Cookley of Charlotte, Betty (Sherman) Hannah of High Point, Kathy (Hughie) Jefferies of Marietta, GA and Susie Norman of Troutman; a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

*In tears we saw you sinking, and watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken, because we wanted you to stay
But when we saw you sleeping, so peacefully and free from pain
How could we wish you back with us, to suffer that again
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go along
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.*
