He attended Statesville High School and was a Dallas Cowboy Fan and was a maintenance worker.

He leaves to cherish the memory of his life, his wife, Lori Holbrook of the home; his father, Edward Lee Holbrook, Sr. of Statesville; his children, Edward Lee (Marissa) Holbrook, III of Statesville, Terra (Sherwin) Howard of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Ebony (John) Brandon-Mack of Charlotte, Richard Barber of Catawba, Shaun Gregory and Darrell Rucker, both of Statesville; twenty-three grandchildren; twenty great grandchildren; his brother, Robert Louis (Faye) Holbrook and Michael Holbrook, both of Statesville; two sisters, Linda Holbrook Kiah of Raleigh and Sherry (Delton) Holbrook-Atkinson of Durham; a sister-in-law, Mary Holbrook of Statesville; a host of nephews and nieces, Eric (Lonna) Holbrook of Charlotte, Anita Holbrook Adams of Cary, Dewayne Edward Kiah of Raleigh, Stacey Holbrook of Wake Forest, Christopher Delton Atkinson of Miami, Florida, Robert Cameron (Brittney) Holbrook of Statesville, Ninya (Gregory Spencer) Holbrook of China Grove, Shaun Whittenburg of Statesville, Billie J. (Bristol Stevenson) Holbrook and Latoya Denise Williams Holbrook, both of Statesville; a special friend, Helen Dobson; and a host of great nephews, great nieces, cousins, other relatives, neighbors and dear friends.

*It breaks our hearts to lose you you did not go alone
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.*

With Our Heartfelt Thanks

...that we through the patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope, (Romans 15) God has given us our church family, neighbors and dear friends, to help us as we go forward. God's Word has been manifested through your many expressions of sympathy and support; we praise God from whom all blessings flow. Thank you for honoring the memory of our beloved Edward, Jr., and for remembering us during his illness and passing. In our risen Lord, we have peace that passes all understanding. The Family
