

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

~ Psalm 23 KJV

Obituary

Jeffrey Charles Jackson

Jeffrey Charles Jackson, was born on May 29th, 1957 in Jamaica, New York to the late William J. Jackson, Sr., and Rosa Lee McClelland Jackson.

Jeff attended P.S. 36, Junior High School 67 and Benjamin Cardozo High School. At 9 years old, he was a little entrepreneur doing various jobs such as: shoveling snow, raking leaves and a paper boy. As he grew into adulthood Jeff was a bike messenger in Manhattan, New York. In addition, he had his own floor waxing business. It was in 2006 Jeff was hired by the S.L. Green, Inc., located in New York City, in their environmental service department and this is where he retired in 2020.

As a child Jeff attended the First Baptist Church of St. Albans, New York and continued his life to be a child of God.

Jeff loved playing pool, chest and loved dancing. One of his favorite places to go was Atlantic City, New Jersey and he was a very good blackjack player. He had a easy smile and laugh that was so contagious it would make any bird sing.

Jeff is preceded in death by his parents, William J. Jackson, Sr., and Rosa Lee McClelland Jackson, and his brothers, Michael E. Jackson and William J. Jackson, Jr.

With a heavy heart, Jeffrey Charles Jackson, leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his loving memory, Sisters: Camille L. Jackson Cephas, Shirley D.
