

The Family Tribute

*A smile for all, a heart of gold
One of the finest this world could hold
Never selfish, always kind
These are the memories he leaves behind...*

Mr. Freddie Roosevelt Maddox, of Ellenwood, Georgia, was born in Iredell County on January 21, 1955, and was the son of the late Ada Miller Maddox. He departed this life in Georgia following an extended illness.

He was united in marriage to Marshall King Maddox. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Willie Maddox, Jr. and two brothers-in-law, James Kirk and Kenneth King.

He leaves to cherish the memory of his life, in addition to his wife, Marshall of the home; his children; Morie Deshaun (Tiffany) Maddox, Fredrick Deon Maddox, Felicia and Lashell Maddox, all of Stockbridge, Georgia, and James (Carolyn) Miller of Charlotte; his siblings, Glenda Kirk and Wanda (Robert) Imes, both of Statesville; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Linda Maddox, Kelvin (Terri) King, Rhyne (Donna) Rankin, Milton Rankins, Jr., Dottie (Jimmie) Murdock, Chad (Paulette) Rucker, and Joe (Traci) Rucker; grandchildren, Amaryia Maddox, Ameria Maddox, Aceyn Maddox, Jadayza Maddox, Jazmine Maddox and Tristian Maddox; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little, but not for long,
and not with your head held low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go!
For this is a journey we all must take
and each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go!*

With Our Heartfelt Thanks

...that we through the patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope, (Romans 15) God has given us our church family, neighbors and dear friends, to help us as we go forward. God's Word has been manifested through your many expressions of sympathy and support; we praise God from whom all blessings flow. Thank you for honoring the memory of our beloved "Freddie" and for remembering us during his illness and passing. In our risen Lord, we have peace that passes all understanding.
