Mrs. Annie Mae Hargrove Taggart, daughter of the late Albert Timothy and Birdie Mayfield Hargrove, was born on October 20, 1929, in Rowan County, NC. She was the oldest of nine children. Her siblings, Cornelius Hargrove, Sallie Marie Hargrove Carr, Frances Hargrove Hollmon, and Elton Hargrove, preceded her in death. She departed this life at Trinity Village in Hickory on March 18, 2022.

Annie Mae was educated in the Davie County School System and was a 1949 graduate of Davie County Training School. She retired from Burlington Industries of Mooresville in 1994. She enjoyed sewing, crafting and baking.

She joined Erwin Temple C.M.E. Church at an early age. In 1953, she wed Howard C. Taggart, Jr., and joined Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church where she was a faithful member for many years. She was a member of the Presbyterian Women, served as an Elder, and was a faithful supporter of the Christian Education Committee.

In addition to her parents and siblings, she was preceded in death by her husband, Howard C. “Jack” Taggart, Jr. on April 20, 2019.

Those left to celebrate her life are daughters, Kathy Taggart and Rita Taggart, both of Statesville, N.C.; brother, Ernest (Nellie) Hargrove of Mocksville, N.C.; sisters, Alberta H. McEachern of Salisbury, N.C., Ethel H. Collins Trimiari of Mocksville, N.C., and Beareane H. (William) Polk of Harrisburg, N.C.; sisters-in-law, Eller Weese Hargrove of Cooleemee, N.C., Phyllis Hargrove of Burlington, N.J., and a host of nieces, nephews, and loved ones who will cherish her memory.

*When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long, and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared, Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do, Miss me, but let me go.*
