A Time To Remember

*A smile for all, a heart of gold,
 one of the finest this world could hold,
 Never selfish, always kind,
 these are the memories she leaves behind...*

Born on January 11, 1934, to the late Mrs. Vera Mayfield Latten and Willie Latten. Ms. Jennie Ruth Latten was number 18 of 19 children. She was preceded in death by her 18 siblings: Clarence Lowell Latten, Atrice Marie Latten Sharpe, Lula Mae Latten, Willie Holman "Buster" Latten, Baby Sister Latten, Rosa Lee Latten Rucker, Guy T. Latten, Harper B. Latten, Flossie Cleo Latten Turner, Clement Maeso Latten, Cordiel Latten Cherry, Mozella Latten McCorkle, Nealie Conell Latten Beatty, Roberta "Leona" Latten, Gussie Mae Latten Carr, Hoyt Latten, Juanita Curtis Latten Brandon Wilson, Leonard Latten.

Ms. Jennie Ruth Latten attended Iredell Public County Schools. She moved to Philadelphia, PA for a short time where she met LeRoy Leggett (deceased). They soon returned to Statesville, NC. To their union, they had four daughters. For many years, Ms. Latten worked at Dixie Seating as a rocking chair packer and finisher. She was very proud of her work. She was most pleased with her ability to "clip," "grow" and "root" just about any type of plants. Plants that are more than 50 years old are still thriving due to her horticulture knowledge. To know Ms. Jennie Ruth Latten was to love her. She had an infectious smile and was simply hilarious. She loved to tell stories about her younger days and how she found her way to the Lord. Ms. Jennie Ruth Latten was a proud long-time dedicated member of Highland Acres Church of Christ. Baptized June 25th, 1972, she was an avid reader of the Bible and enjoyed attending Sunday school, Sunday service, Sunday evening and Wednesday night service at Highland Acres Church of Christ. When praying for others, she always included a prayer for those on the highways and byways, those who do not have shelter and little food to eat. She would always close her prayers with Psalms 119:105 Your word is a lamp into my feet, a light on my path.

Ms. Jennie Ruth Latten and Leroy Leggett (deceased) leave behind loving daughters to cherish her memory. Wanda Kaye Lackey (Terry Mitchell), Kathy L Summers (deceased), Vanessa L Mitchell (Milton Mitchell) and Carolyn Ann Brock; her grandchildren: Tarnisha Davis (Victor), Miyoshi Butler, Xavian Summers, Robert Lackey (Lyn), Jasen Lackey, Rev. Dr. Marcus N. Leggett (Nicole), Ajaya M Mitchell, Travis Harrison (Erin), Leslie Gould and Tora Gould Cousin (Tracey); her great grandchildren: Ava Taylor, Cheyenne Harrison, Tracey Cousin Jr, Myles D.
