

The Family Tribute

Mr. William Henry Maxwell, Jr.

A smile for all, a heart of gold, one of the finest this world could hold Never selfish, always kind, these are the memories he leaves behind...

William Henry "Jack" Maxwell, Jr., gained his eternal wings on November 9, 2022, at Iredell Memorial Hospital in Statesville, North Carolina. He was born on September 8, 1940, in Lavonia, Georgia, to the late William Henry Maxwell, Sr. and Beatrice Johnson Maxwell. He was preceded in death by his brother, Travis.

In 1963, he was drafted into the United States Army, where he served honorably. Upon his discharge, Jack made the smart decision to move to Statesville, North Carolina where a friend introduced him to the love of his life, Idella Byers. The two became inseparable and married in 1966.

They enjoyed life together and where you saw one, you saw the other. Jack enjoyed attending drag racing, basketball, football, (he was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan), and going on trips with his love.

Jack was a strong supporter of community service and was a Big Brother with the Big Brother/Big Sisters Program of Statesville for over 18 years and a Scout Assistant with Boy Scouts for 25 years. Jack and Idella attended Third Creek Baptist Church in Stony Point, North Carolina where he served in many capacities over the years. He worked at J. C. Penney's in Statesville and retired after 25 years of service.

They had two boys and family became their life. He was proud of his boys and often gave them solicited and unsolicited advice on how to be a good citizen.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories: his wife of 55 years, Idella Byers Maxwell of the home; two sons, Angelo Maxwell of Houston, Texas, and Mario Maxwell of Statesville, N.C.; one sister, Peggie (Tyrone) Lumpkin; one brother, Barry Maxwell; three grandchildren, Corin Maxwell, Anjelica Maxwell, and Allison Maxwell; one great grandson, Riley Maxwell; he also leaves to cherish a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and church family.

Jack Maxwell will be missed and leaves behind a growing legacy of trusting in God and love for family and friends.

It Is With Our Heartfelt Thanks

We through the patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope, (John 3:16) God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten son; (Psalm 91:4) He shall cover thee with His feathers, and under his wings shall thou trust; his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thank you for your many expressions of sympathy and support shown to our family at this time. May God bless you and keep you in his tender loving care. Please continue to pray for us. We LOVE you! The Family
